Logging in

- Login

Login

Log in to Smart Portal

The individual access credentials can be requested from Smart. The username is your email address. You should change your password immediately after first sign-in using the 'Change Password' function under Settings (top right).

During the initial login, you can choose your preferred language (German or English). If you wish to change the language, you can also do so under Settings.

image.png

image.png not found or type unknown